Meet Terrié

I have always strived to be a good mom, but unfortunately, drugs took over. Thistle Farms showed me how to love myself, be responsible, and offered me therapy so I could heal from my trauma. Now I can be a mom that's present-physically and emotionally.

It's the little things that make it so worth it:

I get to play with my children, clean our home, wash the dishes.
I get to pay bills because i have money in the bank that I choose to save.
I couldn't speak up before, but I have a voice today.

My worst day in recovery will always be better than my best day in addiction.

-Terrié, 2022 Thistle Farms Graduate and Education & Outreach Data Coordinator
